ABSTRACT

States that he bought 6 Foddy Shops in the sale held in the Krishnarajapet Taluk for the year 1903-04, and paid up the amount to be deposited; that, of the six shops, four shops were confirmed to him and the other two — one at Chittanahalli and the other at Narayanapur — were refused him.

and were given to - another Contractor
Narasamma of Serunga-patam Taluk, without the knowledge of the petitioner to whom those two shops had been knocked down in the first sale; that relying on the good income of these two shops, he made the other four shops for high amount;
and that it will be a serious loss to him to retain the contract of the other four shops without the two of which he has been unjustly deprived.

Prays that the two shops given to Narasamma may also be restored to him, or his resignation for the other four shops may be accepted, and the money he has deposited may be returned to him

Endorsement

No. 143
 Dated 14/8/03

With reference to his petition No 3054, dated 2x 5/5

20th June 03, requesting the registry of six toddy shops in his name instead of only four already registered or permission to resign the latter, Mummalaretty of Herahotalu village, Krishnarajpett Taluk, is informed that his petition has been rejected by Govt.

The six toddy shops referred to by the petitioner having been sold separately and not in a group, he has no good ground for complaints against the disposal on tenders, of two shops out of the six.
